Jean Ford Democracy Award

In honor of Jean Ford, the Advisory Committee on Participatory Democracy (ACPD) created the Jean Ford Democracy Award, established as part of Senate Bill 309 and passed during the 2003 Legislature. The award recognizes the exemplary service of Nevada citizens who have played a key role in promoting participatory democracy in Nevada. The award program is designed to honor deserving citizens who have benefited their communities, state and nation through their participation and leadership in furthering the democratic process. Any resident of Nevada is eligible for nomination and any resident of Nevada or organization operating therein may nominate a Nevada citizen for the award.

2006 Award Winners: Mark Peplowski Larry Struve

2007 Award Winners: Destiny Carroll Hannah Low Judy Simpson Senator Dina Titus

About Jean Ford:

Jean Ford served in the State Assembly (1972-76) and the State Senate (1978-82). She was a fervent community activist who was instrumental in the establishment of the Nevada Women's History Project, which gathered and disseminated information about the roles, accomplishments and activities of Nevada women from every race, class and ethnic background who contributed in determining the State's future.
